 THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED.

ALTIORA PETO.—PART I.

By LAURENCE OLIPHANT.

WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.

To be Completed in Four Monthly Parts at 5s.

"Times."

"It has always been a marvel to us that Mr. Laurence Oliphant should never have gratified us with another novel in the same genre as his 'Piccadilly,' which took the society of many seasons ago almost by storm. . . . But we have good reason to hope that we have lost nothing by waiting, if we may argue from the beginning of 'Altiora Peto.' . . . The opening chapters overflow with drollery, which touches most subjects and trifles with all."

New Novel by Mrs. Oliphant.

THE LADIES LINDORES.

By MRS. OLIPHANT.

(Originally published in "Blackwood's Magazine.")

3 vols., post 8vo, 25s. 6d.

"Athenaeum" of 19th May.

"Mrs. Oliphant is seen to advantage in her latest story. 'The Ladies Lindores' is complete in its conception, and full of excellent character-drawing throughout. . . . Mrs. Oliphant has never placed a picture more vividly before her readers; and, while Rolls is the pre-eminent hero, there is not a lay figure in this happily elaborated story."

THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED.

THIS Union is formed to maintain the ancient marriage law of the land, and in particular to resist the legalisation of marriage with a wife's sister.

Its efforts are directed to organising committees throughout the United Kingdom; to diffusing information by lectures, publications, and otherwise on a subject on which public opinion has been much misled; to encouraging petitions to both Houses of Parliament; and to directing the attention of the Legislature to the true bearings of the question. A Ladies' Committee has been formed to assist the Union.

The whole principle on which the marriage law of this land is based is involved in the acceptance or rejection of the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill. In all countries where the marriage law has been relaxed in this one particular other relaxations have, after some lapse of time, been adopted; in some countries not only may a woman marry her sister's husband, and a man marry his brother's wife, and his wife's niece, or, as in the State of New York, his wife's daughter, but in others a man is freely permitted to marry his niece by blood.

As the operations of the Union are very extensive, subscriptions and donations are earnestly requested.

It will be obvious that the publications circulated by this Union, although the arguments and considerations contained in them point to the same conclusion, represent in particulars only the mind of their respective authors.

THE REAL LORD BYRON: New

VIEWS of the POET'S LIFE. By JOHN CORDY JEAFFRESON, Author of "A Book about Doctors," &c. 2 vols., demy 8vo, 30s. "Mr. Jeaffecton comes forward with a narrative which must take a very important place in Byron's literature. Almost every chapter contains material which may be fairly called new, and it may reasonably be anticipated that these volumes will be regarded with deep interest by all who are concerned in the works and the fame of this great English poet."—Times. "No other book relating to the history of English literature in the nineteenth century has appeared of recent years that can claim to contain so much novel information as Mr. Jeaffecton's. He has produced a work that throws a flood of new light on the most critical periods of Byron's life, and that every future critic of modern English poetry will have to read and re-read."—Edinburgh.

SERVICE with the 93rd SUTHERLAND HIGHLANDERS. By Surgeon-General MUNRO, M.D., C.B., formerly Surgeon of the Regiment. 1 vol., demy 8vo, 15s. "There is much in these interesting 'Reminiscences' that will gratify while it pains the reader. A book like this, which portrays the horrors, and not merely the showy side, of war has distinct usefulness. Dr. Munro recounts many incidents with pardonable pride."—Pall Mall. "An interesting collection of reminiscences; we advise our readers to buy the book and judge for themselves of its merits."—United Service Gazette.

NEW VOLUME OF POEMS BY THE AUTHOR OF "OLRIG GRANGE."

Just published, in 1 vol., extra fcap. 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

NORTH COUNTRY FOLK: Poems.

By WALTER C. SMITH, M.A.

"That Dr. Smith's new book, containing some more of the North Country sketches he draws so well, should be composed of short and unconnected poems is in its favour, to begin with; nor is reading likely to diminish the favour with which the reader who knows the author will take it up, while it ought to determine that favour in those who do not know him. . . . He has not, we think, done anything better than the best things in this book."

Academy.

"Dr. Smith's portraits are all of plain Scotchmen and Scotchwomen. There is an exquisite nicety of touch in these realistic pictures. With a master-hand he paints the souls of his dumb heroes and heroines, his deep spiritual insight has penetrated to their inner life, and he has clothed their thoughts and feelings in rich melody of song."—Echo.

"In 'North Country Folk' Dr. Smith has given us a series of the most delightful character-sketches, which will sustain and increase his already well-earned poetic fame. For pathos and humour, for sheer insight into human nature, and the power to paint with all an artist's touch the moods and beauties of the world around us, these poems are equal to anything Dr. Smith has yet written."

"The first of these sketches, 'Wee Curly Pow,' deserves its place of honour at the head of the volume; it is one of the most powerfully pathetic tales we have ever read, and it is quite worthy of a place beside 'Rizpah' in the Poet-Laureate's last volume of 'Poems and Ballads.' To analyse it would be taking a rose to pieces."

Dumfries and Galloway Standard.

"For rich variety alike in substance and form, for keen analyses of the hidden springs of action, for seathing exposure of all that is mean and base, and for the effective presentation of the loftiest ideals, for dramatic power allied with true spiritual energies, for mingled humour and pathos, we do not know a volume in the whole range of Scottish verse that can be said to surpass 'North Country Folk.'"

Christian Leader.

"The follies and pettiness of suburban life provoke Dr. Smith's scorn. The race for wealth, the desire for position, and other kindred themes are treated in a straightforward, outspoken fashion."

Dundee Advertiser.

"'Wee Curly Pow' is full of exquisite pathos and tenderness, and 'Dick Dalglish' is rich in genuine humour. We recommend all who are fond of genuine poetry to get Dr. Smith's poems at once. The book is full of music."—Sheffield Independent.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE IN ASIA. ACROSS CHRYSE:

From Canton to Mandalay.

By ARCHIBALD R. COLQUHOUN,

Executive Engineer, Indian Public Works, F.R.G.S., A.M.Inst.C.E.

With Three Original Maps, and about 300 Illustrations, mostly from Original Photographs and Sketches.

In 2 vols., demy 8vo, cloth extra, £2 2s.

SECOND EDITION.

From the Athenaeum, May 26:—"Mr. Colquhoun is a born traveller. . . . Very much more of interest, we should like to have quoted from these creditable volumes, but space fails. There is no doubt that, if life and health be granted, we shall yet owe further valuable acquisitions to Mr. Colquhoun."

"Many circumstances conspire to make the volumes 'Across Chryse' prominently interesting among the geographical books of the day; and their authority raises this interest to a high positive value." Daily Telegraph.

"The subject is as fresh and as absorbing in its interest as Mr. Colquhoun's narrative is spirited and complete. Some persons have a prejudice against books of travel, but there is no prejudice which will not be disarmed immediately the first chapter of Mr. Colquhoun's book has been read." World.

FREDERIC THE GREAT AND MARIA THERESA.

From hitherto Unpublished Documents, 1740-1742.

By the DUC DE BROGLIE,

Member of the French Academy, &c.

"The Duc de Broglie has given us a book, charming in itself, and most interesting from the new light which it throws on the obscure transactions it describes. It has, indeed, all the elements of the tragic and the sublime."

"English readers whose impressions of Frederic are derived chiefly from Carlyle's pages, with perhaps a recollection of Macaulay's brilliant essay, will find it not unprofitable to correct their ideas by a reference to the Duc de Broglie's history."—St. James's Gazette.

The Alpine Journal says:—"This unparalleled series of winter ascents, executed by a lady, will form one of the most brilliant chapters in the history of winter mountaineering."

"Bright, pleasant, and eminently practical in its hints and suggestions, Mrs. Burnaby's graphic account of her adventures—which are without most modestly narrated—will doubtless lead others to follow in her footsteps." World.

"Has an interest which grows and grows. . . . Whether Mr. Robinson is describing a comfortable, and consequently commonplace, hotel, or whether his theme be the mountains that enclose the Salt Lake and the farming hamlets of the Mormon community, he is still the painter with a full palette and a dashing brush, with now and then a touch of delicate minuteness or sudden humour."—Daily Telegraph.

SANDRINGHAM: Past and Present.
With some Historic Memorials of the Norfolk Coast. By Mrs. HERBERT JONES. Crown 8vo, pp. 320, with Eight Illustrations, 8s. 6d. [Now ready.]

"A happy thought certainly inspired Mrs. Jones when she undertook to write this history of Sandringham Hall, which will interest even those who have never seen it, and will prove especially entertaining to the Royal Family. . . . It is superlative to compliment Mrs. Herbert Jones on her charming style and her industry in compiling material for the formation of her work. Both are well known to those who have had the pleasure of reading anything she has written, especially on subjects of historical and antiquarian lore. To indefatigable perseverance this able lady adds the rare art—for art it is—of presenting the result of her learning in the most attractive manner possible."—Morning Post.
